

No Need to Die Early

I wrote these poems after observing how some single mothers go all out for their married boy-friends. Some of these women are over 60 years of age but behave like young women. Their dress code is the same as that of young women. These are women who pay their lovers. I hear some people say I will die for him or her. You only live once therefore enjoy your life. There is no need for you to die for someone because LORD Jesus Christ already paid the price. There are single mothers who love their boy-friends more than their own children. Some of the boy-friends are married men. Such women behave as though they are under a curse. They don't heed any good advice but give themselves, their monies and anything of value. These are amongst the young and the old. I mean a granny of 60 years old paying a young man of 24 years for sex. Old men also pay younger women. These oldies say they are enjoying their democracy, their freedom. What abomination under the sun. Such young men in South Africa are called Ben 10. I heard some of them use either drugs or dagga when they commit such acts. They say we only do it for money. The lazy young men know which grannies are lustful. On the day when Pension Grants are paid, these youngsters prepare themselves to visit the grannies.
